Declaration of consent for the use of personal data

Subject of the declaration of consent:

The subject of the consent is personal data in the context of social counselling.

Purpose:

Use and disclosure in cooperation with the Archbishopric General of Paderborn in the case of social counselling: The use of personal data for contacting corresponding institutions (health insurance, student secretariat, landlords, lawyers, doctors, ASTA, university clearing office, International Office, Protestant student community, GEZ, job centre, banks).

Declaration:

I declare my consent to the use, disclosure for the purposes described above and grant the Katholische Hochschulgemeinde Dortmund the rights, including the right to use this personal data for the purposes stated.

The use of the recordings and data for purposes other than those described or placing them on the market by transferring them to third parties is not permitted.

I am aware that personal data is accessible worldwide, even in countries with a low level of data protection. Further dissemination and use by unauthorised third parties can therefore not be ruled out. In the event that consent is withdrawn, complete deletion of the recordings and data from the Internet cannot therefore be guaranteed.

I have noted that consent is voluntary and that I can revoke this consent at any time for the future. I will not suffer any disadvantages from the non-granting or revocation of consent. The revocation can be made in writing to the above-mentioned institution or to sekretariat@khg-dortmund.de.

I have taken note of the attached information regarding the publication of personal data, photos or films on the internet.

If this consent refers to the publication of pictures of persons who have not yet reached the age of 16, the specific pictures must be attached to the declaration and signed separately by the legal guardians.

Information on the publication of personal data, photos or films on the internet

The use of personal data and images such as photos or films by publishing them on the website of the institution is only permissible with the consent of the person concerned in accordance with § 22 of the German Art Copyright Act. If you agree to such use, you can declare your consent. The declaration of consent is voluntary and can be revoked by you at any time without giving reasons. In the event that you do not wish to submit the declaration of consent, we expressly state that this is not associated with any disadvantages for you.

Due to the intended use on the website of the institution, there is the possibility of worldwide access to the images or retrieval of the posted data and images, also from countries in which no or insufficient data protection standards exist. The institution can therefore neither influence the access to these data via the internet nor the use of these data and in this respect cannot assume any guarantee for the observance of data protection.

Using suitable search engines, personal data can be found on the internet and the persons depicted in the images can possibly also be identified. This also makes it possible to identify individuals by combining this data and information with other data available on the Internet and to open up additional possibilities of use, e.g. for advertising purposes. Due to the possibilities of worldwide retrieval and storage of data by other bodies or persons, further use by other bodies or persons or retrieval via archive functions of search engines cannot be ruled out in the event of revocation of consent and despite removal of your data and images from our website.
